Thank you for your interest in the Society. It was founded in 1993 by Keith Johnson to further the promotion and performance of American Old Time music in Britain. It holds an annual festival at Gainsborough in Lincolnshire, headlined by visiting American players and featuring homegrown performers. The Society also runs a Spring and Summer Camp each year, organises workshops and publishes the quarterly magazine "Old Time News". It has produced its own CD, "Friends Across The Pond" which is a compilation featuring American guests from the Gainsborough Festival. To become a member and to receive any of the merchandise listed below, simply complete the form at the bottom of the page.
